

Shikakai or Soapnut powder (Acacia Concinna)

This Shikakai powder is produced from natural Shikakai collected by the indigenous tribal people of KBK (Kalahandi-Bolangir-Koraput) region. This powder promotes growth of hair and removes dandruff. If used after bath it does not leave the skin dry. Mruttika Resources Pvt. Ltd. has initiated this marketing process with the help of these communities to provide the consumers with a product, which is organic in nature and collected directly from the forest.

Available in 100gm packets

Reetha powder (Sapindus emarginatus)

This Shikakai powder is produced from natural Reetha collected by the indigenous tribal people of KBK (Kalahandi-Bolangir-Koraput) region. The pericarp of the soapnut is anti parasitic and has detergent effect on the skin. It is used for hair wash for its thickening and darkening characteristics. It promotes growth of hair and removes dandruff. Mruttika Resources Pvt. Ltd. has initiated this marketing process with the help of these communities to provide the consumers with a product, which is organic in nature and collected directly from the forest.

Available in 100gm packets